Associate Professor of Economics and Food Policy	September 1985 - August 1992
Assistant Professor of Economics and Food Policy	June 1982 - August 1985

Current and past courses: survey research; economics of food policy in low-income countries; fundamentals of food policy; introductory economics for food policy.

Research Interests: Sustainability of impacts of program and policy interventions; effects of food assistance in low-income countries; programmatic uses of food aid; measures of household food security; dietary intake metrics; survey and field research methods; cost-effectiveness evaluation; educational and training needs for professionals in applied global nutrition and food policy.

Center for Employment and Income Studies, Florence Heller School, Brandeis University, Waltham, Massachusetts

Senior Research Associate November 1980 - July 1982

Director of field research for long-term demonstration project examining effects of work registration requirements in U.S. Food Stamp Program. Supervised staff of twelve data collectors. Assisted in design of data collection instruments, analysis, and interpretation of results.

U.S. Department of Agriculture,
Nutrition Economics Group, Washington, D.C.
Staff Member — May - December 1978

Prepared USAID Project Paper on effects of consumer food price subsidies on food consumption and production and on other economic variables in developing countries; prepared paper on influence of agricultural projects on food consumption and nutritional status. Assessed nutritional impact of proposed programs for USAID project reviews.

International Nutrition Planning Program,
Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge, Massachusetts
Sponsored Research Staff — May 1975 - March 1978

Research on economics of food distribution systems and consumer price subsidies. Co-authored report on Pakistan's ration system. Designed and implemented formal study of health care and ration systems, studying reasons for differing levels of use and effects of food distribution.

Nutrition Cell, Planning Division, Government of Pakistan, Islamabad, Pakistan
Nutrition Advisor — June 1976 - August 1977

As part of USAID-funded M.I.T.-Pakistan Project in Nutrition Planning, designed and supervised implementation of socioeconomic and behavioral segments of national nutrition survey, working with Nutrition Cell staff. Survey covered sources and disposition of income, food purchasing and consumption, morbidity, and health care. Trained and supervised interviewers in field (in Urdu); supervised data processing. Performed analysis of determinants of household food consumption, including income, prices, and the role of subsidized food.

Community Teamwork, Inc., Lowell, Massachusetts
Director of Health Programs — November 1972 - August 1973
Director, Emergency Food and Medical Services — May 1971 - April 1972
Health Planner — February 1971 - May 1971

Administered all health programs for Greater Lowell community action agency. Established Surplus Food distribution and delivery and medical transportation programs. Helped establish Halfway House for alcoholics. Designed lead paint poisoning prevention program.

Massachusetts Nutrition Program, West Roxbury, Massachusetts
Advance Team Member — October 1969 - May 1970

Responsible for sample selection, mapping, and door-to-door interviewing for Ten-State Nutrition Survey in Massachusetts. Assisted in managing clinic and translating French for dietary interviews.

RESEARCH, CONSULTING, AND PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

USAID Feed the Future
Food Systems Nutrition Innovation Lab — September 2021 – August 2025

Senior Technical Specialist on a multi-country multi-year research project assessing food systems, food safety, food supply chains, food security in relation to nutrition and health.

World Vision US, Accelerator Fund — June – November 2024

Investigator on project: Analysis of the Ultra-Poor Graduation Approach through a Sustainability Lens", review of USAID/BHA funded food security projects.

Save the Children - IDEAL (Implementer-Led Design, Evidence, Analysis, and Learning)
USAID BHA-funded food security activity
PAST Forward — February 2022 – December 2024

Principal Investigator on research project to assess the implementation and effectiveness of the requirement, instituted by USAID Bureau of Humanitarian Assistance in 2016, that proposals for Development Food Security Activities (now called Resilience Food Security Activities) incorporate explicit sustainability plans.

US Agency for International Development
STOP Spillover October 2020 – June 2023

Researcher on a university-wide program to mitigate the spread of zoonotic disease, contributing to design of surveys of risk behaviors in Liberia.

ACDI/VOCA Burkina Faso October 2019 – September 2023

Principal Investigator on research partnership with the NGO implementing USAID/Food for Peace Development Food Security Activity (DFSA) in Burkina Faso. Research focuses on developing a predictive tool for sustainability of DFSA intervention components and validating it in areas where the previous FFP activity has ended.

Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation
INDDEX (International Dietary Data Expansion Project) January 2015 – December 2022

Co-Principal Investigator of a project to develop improved and streamlined methods of collecting individual 24-hour recall dietary data and promoting their use to improve the evidence base for food and nutrition policy in low-income countries.

USAID, Food for Peace, Washington D.C.
Food Aid Quality Review Phase 2-3 October 2011 – January 2021

Co-Principal Investigator of a comprehensive Food Aid Quality Review focused on implementing recommendations on assessing the nutritional quality, food technology, and programmatic aspects of the uses of enriched, fortified, and blended foods used in PL480 Title II non-emergency and emergency programs. Principal Investigator of three field trials in Sub-Saharan Africa testing uses of these foods and assessing effectiveness and cost effectiveness of alternative food products.

FANTA (Food and Nutrition Technical Assistance),
FHI360, Washington D.C. November 2008 – June 2016

Principal Investigator of a four-country study to assess the mechanisms by which agencies administering Title II (Food for Peace) programs can ensure that the activities and impacts achieved will be sustained after program exit ("exit strategies"). Project involves field data collection over two years in four countries and assessment of sustainability two years after phase-out. (Primary responsibility for three of the countries.)

Save the Children Ethiopia January 2010 – January 2012

Responsible for cost/delivery and cost/effectiveness analysis of Food by Prescriptions, a program to provide nutritious food to HIV+ malnourished patients in Ethiopia.

GAIN Geneva November 2009 – December 2010

Part of a team developing monitoring and evaluation systems for new, targeted micronutrient fortification programs aimed at low-income populations in developing countries.

USAID, Food for Peace, Washington D.C.
Food Aid Quality Review Phase 1 April 2009 – October 2011

Co-Principal Investigator of a comprehensive Food Aid Quality Review focused on assessing the nutritional quality, food technology, and programmatic aspects of the uses of enriched, fortified and blended foods used in PL480 Title II non-emergency and emergency programs and making recommendations on commodity composition (micronutrient profiles), processing and procurement, and programming of these foods.

World Food Programme, Latin America Office, Panama Fall 2008 - May 2009

Principal Investigator of a project to review the application of small area estimation and mapping techniques to the assessment of vulnerability to hunger and food insecurity, with recommendations to WFP for implementation of Vulnerability Assessment and Mapping processes.

World Food Programme, Rome January 2007 – June 2007

Co-investigator, analysis of secondary data sets to explore use of dietary diversity measures as indicators of dietary adequacy and to identify optimum construction of such measures.

USDA Economic Research Service May 2006 - October 2007
Washington DC

Contributor to a study designed to determine why Food Stamp participants report higher levels of food insecurity than comparable non-participants by applying an innovative Engel Function approach.

World Food Programme, LAC Regional Office May 2006 – August 2007
Panama, Panama

Principal Investigator, project to use Small Area Estimation techniques to link census to survey data and produce estimates of malnutrition prevalence (Hunger Atlas) for Ecuador and Panama, and to write a manual for the application of this technique to malnutrition estimation.

World Food Programme, LAC Regional Office May 2005 – March 2006
Panama, Panama

Principal Investigator of a project to develop a Hunger and Nutrition Atlas for the Dominican Republic by statistically linking a nutrition survey to a national census and developing sub-provincial estimates of child malnutrition prevalence and its associated factors.

World Food Programme, Bangladesh
Dhaka, Bangladesh May – December 2004

Principal Investigator of an evaluation of WFP School Feeding Program implementation and impacts on enrollment, promotion, retention, and cognitive performance of school children.

World Food Programme, Asia Region
Bangkok, Thailand September 2003 – May 2004

Work with a team of students to conduct analysis of five DHS data sets to analyze malnutrition causality and assess the suitability of these data sets for guiding food program targeting.

USAID with Academy for Educational Development, Food and Nutrition Technical Assistance Program
Washington, DC July 2002-May 2003

Prepare global literature review of USAID-funded program experience with exit and graduation strategies.

CARE/Honduras July 2002
Tegucigalpa, Honduras

Worked with the agency to develop a specific exit strategy for its PL480 Title II community-based programs.

US Agency for International Development July - October 2001
Lima, Peru

Principal Investigator of project to develop a national strategy to address chronic malnutrition in Peru.

World Bank
Washington, D.C. May - November 2000

Prepared training module on Food Transfers and Food-Related Safety Net Programs for the World Bank Institute: review of literature, annotated bibliography, guidelines for selection and implementation of programs, and training exercise.

World Bank
Washington, D.C. August 1999-October 2000

Prepared background paper Economic and Health Consequences of Malnutrition in Developing Countries: Should Nutrition Be Viewed as an Input or an Outcome of Economic Development? for a World Bank-UNICEF conference on Nutrition Narratives Analysis, January 2000. (Released 2001)

U.S. Agency for International Development March - August 1999
Washington, D.C.
Academy for Educational Development

Principal Investigator of a field study documenting the diversity of uses of food aid in maternal and child health programs in Bolivia and Peru, to develop a "best practices" field guide and conduct a practitioner workshop.

Bangladesh Institute for Research and Training on Applied Nutrition
Dhaka, Bangladesh February 1997-February 1999

Work with an institute of the Ministry of Agriculture on a two-year project to develop and test methods of assessing the consumption effects of agricultural policies, and to develop expertise within the Ministry to conduct such assessments. Project entails conducting desk reviews, qualitative field assessments, and formal quantitative surveys, and comparing their results.

Instituto de Nutrición de Centro América y Panamá (INCAP) November 1997
Guatemala City, Guatemala

Developed and taught a one-week intensive course (in Spanish) on program monitoring and evaluation for nutrition professionals in Central and South America.

Management Sciences for Health
Boston, Massachusetts May-June 1997

World Bank
Washington, D.C. March 1997

Conducted training program for World Bank Staff on methods of cost/benefit and cost/effectiveness analysis and their application to the evaluation of food aid programs in Honduras.

American Association of Retired Persons July 1995 - July 1997
Andrus Foundation, Washington, D.C.

Principal Investigator of a study of the uses of the Nutrition Screening Initiative by Area Agencies on Aging in Massachusetts.

U.S. Agency for International Development
Tegucigalpa, Honduras October 1995-November 1996

Co-Principal Investigator for analysis of national household income, expenditure, and food consumption survey to analyze determinants of household food security and children's nutritional status; made recommendations on policies for nutrition programming and economic development strategies.

PRISM Project
Arlington, Virginia December 1995-March 1996

Prepared a paper on the development of indicators for measuring improvements in Food Security as a result of AID programs; presented paper and participated in workshop sponsored by USAID/Washington.

U.S. Agency for International Development
Tegucigalpa, Honduras
with International Science and Technology Institute February 1993 - October 1995

Co-P.I. of household survey to assess differences in household uses of cash-like food coupons versus direct distribution of food in maternal and child feeding and school feeding, programs under P.L.480 Title II.

Pew Charitable Trusts
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania August 1993-August 1995

PI of a qualitative and quantitative study of the training and educational needs for operationally oriented nutrition professionals to work in nutrition and food policy in Mexico and Central America

World Bank July 1993
Office of Population, Health
Advised various ministries in Egypt on alternatives to existing consumer bread subsidy; assess information needed to evaluate options.

U.S. Agency for International Development June - December 1992
Bureau for Africa
Office of Analysis, Research and Technical Support
Member of two-person team evaluating the Cornell University Food and Nutrition Policy Program's five-year, ten-country research project on Structural Adjustment in Sub-Saharan Africa: Its Implications for Poverty. Evaluation involved review of published and unpublished materials, discussion with interested institutions, and travel to countries where research had taken place.

World Bank May 1992
Maghreb Office of Population, Health and Nutrition
Advise Statistical Division of Moroccan Ministry of Plan on analytic approaches to using National Household Survey to evaluate the nutrition situation in the country and to develop nutrition strategies.

U.S. Agency for International Development
Maputo, Mozambique August 1992
Participated in team developing recommendations for urban food consumption safety nets for the poor in Maputo and other urban areas of Mozambique.

World Food Program February 1991
Developed evaluation procedure and revised available data on Jamaica's Food Stamp Program.

Tufts University School of Nutrition
Center on Hunger, Poverty, and Nutrition Policy Sept. 1991 - Sept. 1994
Evaluated alternative approaches to defining the U.S. poverty line, focusing on assessing justifications for maintaining separate poverty lines for the elderly. Reviewed data on nutritional requirements, analyzed Consumer Expenditure Survey data to identify food spending, and overall expenditure patterns of elderly and low-income elderly in the U.S.

U.S. Agency for International Development, Office of Policy and Program Coordination January 1990 - March 1991
Principal Investigator of analysis of female household headship in the Dominican Republic, investigating characteristics of female-headed households according to alternative definitions, and the consequences of female headship for income levels, income and expenditure patterns, food consumption, and the nutritional status of children. Research based on primary data analysis.

U.S. Department of Agriculture — October 1988 - July 1989
Nutrition Economics Group

Prepared synthesis of research results on the effects of economic policies on food consumption and nutrition in developing countries.

U.S. Agency for International Development — October 1984 - December 1988
Office of Nutrition

Principal Investigator of a study of the effects on food consumption of food price policy in the Dominican Republic and the Republic of Mali based on national household food consumption, income, and expenditure surveys.

U.S. Department of Agriculture — April 1988
Nutrition Economics Group

Review and revise paper on uses of economic data for policy analysis.

American Association of Retired Persons — September 1986 - June 1988
Andrus Foundation, Washington, D.C.

Principal Investigator of a study of the determinants of innovative service delivery in the U.S. elderly nutrition program.

US Agency for International — August 1982 - June 1985
Development, Office of Policy and Program Coordination

Principal Investigator of a project to synthesize existing research on the internal dynamics of households, organize an international conference on household issues, and develop methods for incorporating these research results into the design of economic development projects.

U.S. Department of Agriculture — October 1982 - July 1984
Agricultural Research Service

Co-Principal Investigator of an evaluation of the effect of ARS research on U.S. commercial exports of agricultural products, based on case studies of specific commodities and statistical analysis of U.S. export market experience.

U.S. Agency for International Development — February 1993-October 1995
Tegucigalpa, Honduras

Designed a set of household surveys in Honduras and participated in analysis to assess the differences of household uses of cash-like food coupons versus their use of direct distribution of food in school feeding and maternal and child feeding programs under P.L.480 Title II.

U.S. Agency for International Development — September - December 1990
Bureau for Science and Technology

Participated in evaluation of Michigan State University's Food Security in Africa Project; assessed accomplishments and made recommendations for future.

Food Research and Action Center — February 1988, January 1990
Community Child Hunger Identification Project
Review and revise data collection and analysis plans.

Massachusetts Department of Public Health — September 1983 - May 1985
Assist in analysis and interpretation of data from State Nutrition Survey.

Morgan Newman Associates, Inc., Washington, D.C. — February - May 1982
Prepared background paper summarizing international experience with school feeding programs for use by Finance Ministry of Saudi Arabia.

Food and Agriculture Organization, Rome, Italy — January - March 1982
Prepared two chapters for manual on use of specific project components in rural development projects: "Producer and Consumer Subsidies," and "Development of Food Marketing Infrastructure."

World Bank, Office of Population, Health, and Nutrition, Washington, D.C. — May - August 1981
Prepared nutrition sector assessment paper on Pakistan based on previous experience and secondary sources.

International Food Policy Research Institute, Washington, D.C. — July - August 1981
Assisted in preparing research proposal on evaluation of nutrition programs.

U.S. Department of Agriculture, Food and Nutrition Service, Policy and Program Evaluation Unit — September 1978 - November 1980
Prepared papers summarizing research needs, designed research programs, evaluated existing information, drafted policy papers, and performed data analysis related to health and nutritional effects and fiscal management of domestic (U.S.) nutrition programs.

U.S. Agency for International Development, Washington, D.C. — July 1980
Reviewed nutritional aspects of Thailand Health Sector Assessment prepared by USAID Mission; evaluated proposed programs and suggested revisions based on field visits in Thailand and discussions with U.S. and Thai government officials and program staff.

USAID Mission to the Philippines, Manila, Republic of the Philippines — August, October 1980
Designed pilot project to determine nutritional effects, cost, and administrative feasibility of alternative food price interventions. Study was implemented by National Nutrition Council of the Philippines in conjunction with International Food Policy Research Institute.

U.S. Department of Agriculture, International Development Staff, Nutrition RSSA — November - December 1979,

March 1980

Assisted the Government of Cameroon Ministry of Economics and Planning in design of national household income and expenditure survey, including methods for collecting food consumption data. Survey undertaken in 1983 - 84 by Government of Cameroon.

Tufts University Nutrition Institute,
Medford, Massachusetts June 1979 - February 1980

Designed research project to study influence of prices on food consumption and nutritional status, with focus on effects of food price subsidy in Egypt. International Food Policy Research Institute undertook study in expanded form.

President's Commission on World Hunger, Washington, D.C. June 1979

Prepared paper summarizing nutritional effect of U.S. food programs since 1969 and recommending future policies and programs.

Food for Peace Office, Washington, D.C. February - April 1979

Part of a team evaluating U.S. food aid policy and PL 480 Title II food distribution in India. Evaluated and wrote report on Food for Work programs based on extensive site visits. Assisted in evaluation and report on Maternal and Child and School Feeding and interagency interaction.
