

3 Tips to Jump Start your Job Search in 2021

Whether you've already begun job searching or you're not even sure where to begin, here are 3 quick tips to get you started:

1. Set aside a dedicated time each week to devote to your career development and planning. Job searching is time consuming! Block out time each week that will be dedicated solely to working on your job search. Start with reading 7 Ways Job Searching Will Be Different in 2021

2. Get clear on what you're targeting. Take the time you need to assess your skills, interests and goals, as well as researching the potential roles, industries, or organizations where you think you could add value. Here's a worksheet to get you started.

3. Refine your resume and LinkedIn profile. These are your key marketing materials and as such, need to be carefully crafted to communicate the unique value you can deliver to organizations. Did you know that Tufts provides all students with free access to LinkedIn Learning, an online learning platform, where you can find videos on how to set up your profile, search for jobs or build your network? You can also view our Career Videos and Webinars, including, Resume & CV Best Practices, at this link on our website.

