SERVICE SCHOLARS PRESENTS

FRIEDMAN SCHOOL ALUMNI PANEL:
LANDING AN IMPACTFUL JOB
OUT OF GRADUATE SCHOOL

MITCH THEISEN
MANAGER, CORPORATE
RESPONSIBILITY AT SAPUTO
DAIRY USA

Mitch Theisen is a sustainability professional and 2020 graduate of the AFE program. As a member of Saputo Dairy USA’s Strategy Department, he develops, implements, and facilitates execution of Corporate Responsibility strategies that drive impact on The Saputo Promise and deliver triple-bottom-line business value. His specific focus areas / responsibilities include: responsible sourcing, nutrition & healthy living, strategic analysis & governance, and communications/marketing.

CYRENA THIBODEAU
AGRICULTURAL
MARKETING & INSPECTION REP,
CT DEPT OF AGRICULTURE

Cyrena Thibodeau graduated this last May from the AFE program at Friedman and currently works at the Connecticut Department of Agriculture in the Agriculture Development and Resource Management Bureau. At the Department, Cyrena works on Farm to School programming, the State Food Policy Council, and with Beginning Farmers.

TAYLOR VAIL
MONITORING
& EVALUATION LEAD,
ONE ACRE FUND

Taylor Vail graduated from Tufts in 2018 with a dual MS/MPH, focusing on FPAN and Biostatistics. She has since moved to rural Tanzania where she leads Monitoring & Evaluation for One Acre Fund’s Tanzania program. In her role she oversees a team with over 50 enumerators, conducting rapid response phone monitoring surveys as well as large field surveys to evaluate OAF’s impact.