Part-time or Work/Study Evaluation Specialist
This part-time position (5-10 hours per week) reports to the Associate Dean for Diversity and Inclusion (ADDI) at the Friedman School of Nutrition Science and Policy. Monitoring progress is a key part of the Friedman School’s Addressing Racial Injustice with Action Plan and is critical to understanding the impact of the actions. The Evaluation Specialist will work with the ADDI to create metrics for specific actions items and devise and implement a data collection plan. They will analyze data and assist with reporting. Applicants should have strong quantitative, qualitative, and communications skills and be detail-oriented and analytical. To apply or for more information, please contact Sara Folta, sara.folta@tufts.edu.
